

Old Republic Construction Program Group, Inc. Is Now Old Republic Contractors Insurance Group, Inc.

February 17, 2017 9:00 AM ET

CHICAGO, Feb. 17, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Old Republic Construction Program Group, Inc. (ORCPG), the specialty contractors insurance division of Old Republic General Insurance Corporation (ORGENCO), is changing its name to Old Republic Contractors Insurance Group, Inc. (ORCIG). The new name more clearly describes our focus as a specialty underwriter of contractors insurance exposures. The name also retains its identity with the ultimate parent company, Old Republic International Corporation (NYSE: ORI) and its family of multi-line insurance companies.

Since its formation ten years ago, the Old Republic Contractors Insurance Group has become an increasingly important market leader that provides quality insurance products and services to select participants in the construction industry. We have gradually expanded its national footprint to provide a high level of specialized underwriting, claims, and loss control services in a professionally competent manner. With offices strategically located in Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Kansas City, New York City, and Pasadena we are well positioned to meet brokers' and insureds' specific needs very efficiently.
