

Old Republic Prices $275 Million Convertible Note Offering

April 23, 2009 6:44 PM ET

CHICAGO, April 23, 2009 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX/ -- Old Republic International Corporation (NYSE: ORI), today announced the pricing of its public offering of $275 million aggregate principal amount of 8% convertible senior notes due 2012. Old Republic has granted the underwriters a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional $41.25 million aggregate principal amount of such convertible notes on the same terms and conditions to cover over-allotments, if any.

Old Republic expects to use the net proceeds of the offering to increase the capital of the general and title insurance business segments, to repay a portion of short term indebtedness, and for general corporate purposes.

Merrill Lynch & Co. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. have acted as joint bookrunning managers for the offering. Copies of the final prospectus supplement and prospectus for the offering may be obtained from Merrill Lynch & Co., Attn: Prospectus Department, 4 World Financial Center, New York, NY 10080, (212) 449-1000, and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., National Statement Processing, Prospectus Library, 4 Chase Metrotech Center, CS Level, Brooklyn, NY 11245, (718) 242-8002.

This press release does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy these securities, nor shall there be any offer or sale of these securities in any state or country in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.
